Join us for some out of this world movies each month this summer! All movies rated PG-13.

Fourth Fridays | 2:00PM | Bates

Books on Tap

Come to the Federal Taphouse this summer, and look for the folks with books. We'll be there to discuss...

June 12: "Golden Hill: A Novel of Old New York" by Francis Spufford

July 10: "The Immortalists" by Chloe Benjamin

Second Wednesdays | 8:00PM | The Federal Taphouse | Ages 21+

Chronicles of Yarnia: A Knit & Crochet Club

Bring your yarn to the library & work in good company; it's more fun to create with friends!

Mondays | 6:30PM | Clark | Ages 9+

Discovering Short Stories: A Discussion Group

Don't have time to commit to a full-length novel? There's no need when there are so many fascinating short stories to read and discuss like Marlin Barton's "Into Silence".

Wednesday, June 5 | 10:00AM | Clark Room

Dungeons & Dragons

Hark back to your youth, and join our Dungeon Master every 2nd and 4th Saturday. You provide the imagination, and we'll provide the 20-sided dice.

Select Saturdays | 1:00PM | Bates | Ages 18+

Harry Potter and the Harry Potter Book Club

It's time to apparate yourself to the library to discuss the last two books in the series.

June 18: "Harry Potter and the Half Blood Prince"

July 16: "Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows"

Third Tuesdays | 6:00PM | Clark

History Book Club

Do you love reading about history? Then come to a History Book Club meeting (or two!) this summer.

June 5: "The Black Jacobins" by CLR James

July 3: "A World Restored: Metternich, Castlereagh and the Problems of Peace" by Henry Kissinger

First Wednesdays | 6:00PM | Windolph

Into the Strange: A Science Fiction Book Club

We invite you to read books that transport you to the future or to a galaxy far, far away. We discuss authors who seek out new life and new civilizations.

June 25: "City of Brass" by S.A. Chakraborty

July 30: "Jade City" by Fonda Lee

Last Tuesdays | 6:00PM | Clark

Thursday Book Group

Read or listen to the selected book, then join us for a light discussion.

July 11: "The House Gun" by Nadine Gordimer

Second Thursdays | 10:00AM | Windolph

Women's Circle

Throughout history women have gathered in circles to empower each other and share wisdom. These affirming gatherings help women get in touch with their feminine strength and turn up their positive vibration.

First Mondays | 6:00PM | Bates

Featured JUNE & JULY Programs

The Fight for Integrated Swimming in Lancaster

Lancaster's Civil Rights struggle spanned employment, housing, education, and recreation. Learn about the lawsuits against three public pools in Lancaster for violating state civil rights law in the early 1960s. Then learn about the construction of the city and county public pools as integrated pools in the late 1960s. Presented by Professor Alison Kibler, F&M American Studies.

Thursday, June 27 | 6:00PM | Bates

Food Nutrition Labels: Marketing & Deceptive Tricks

Multigrain? High-Protein? No Added Sugar? Food label reading can be confusing and often misleading. Join Barbara Goll, the Community Education Liaison and Nutritionist for Homeland at Home, to better understand the new food labels and spot the false or misleading claims often used to market products in grocery stores.

Tuesday, June 11 | 6:00PM | Bates

Getting Help: Intellectual and Development Disabilities Services in Lancaster County

Lancaster County Behavioral Health & Developmental Services (BH/DS) will present information on their service system, including case management, Medicaid Waiver funding, and types of services covered under the Waivers.

Tuesday, June 25 | 1:00PM | Bates

Identity Theft: How to Protect Yourself

Join Jerry Mitchell of the PA Attorney General's Office to learn how to protect yourself from and what to do in case of identity theft. Hosted in partnership with the Lancaster Downtowners.

Friday, June 7 | 3:00PM | Bates

The Importance of Reading Earnest

Break out your best British accent for a table reading of Oscar Wilde's "The Importance of Being Earnest".

Tuesday, June 4 | 6:00PM | LPL courtyard

Las Madres de Berks

Join us for a screening and discussion of "Las Madres de Berks," a documentary that shares the testimonials of four mothers that were detained for two years with their children at the Berks County Residential Center, a family prison in Pennsylvania.

Saturday, July 20 | 3:00PM | Bates

My Neighbor's Secret

You never know what you'll learn when you talk to your neighbors! You might find you live next door to a remarkable Lancastrian who emigrated from Germany after WW2. Using century old documents and family history, historian Stephen J Shaw was able to piece together Lt. Kurt Wolff's journey from the battlefields of WW1, to his time in a Nazi interment camp, to Lancaster County.

Thursday, June 20 | 6:00PM | Bates

Retirement by Design

Join Tim Weagley, a financial advisor with Edward Jones to learn how to determine how much you'll need & the different savings options to reach your retirement goals.

Tuesday, July 9 | 6:00PM | Bates

Sci-Fi July UnBook Club

This isn't your traditional book club: Instead of reading the same book on the same schedule, you pick the science fiction book you want to talk about! This is a low-pressure, casual discussion of our old and new favorites in the genre.

Tuesday, July 9 | 6:00PM | Clark
